BRUNNEN
BY WY-4-WY
PITSFORD HIGH SCHOOL

• make a new beginning •

• plant a seed •

Now starts the
as great a mystery as ever yet devised.
Its pages uncut, its seals still fresh — it starts like all the other times fresh, glowing and surprised.
It shakes the night back and emerges to turn the wheel another notch.

Great words have been written about the dawn . . .
how for one, it offers hope: for others grief.
And some forlorn men regard it as just another milestone in their journey.

Beauty it has, for sure, but like all new born things,
it starts with a moment of pain and ugliness;
and then cries out and lends its beauty to all living things and those too dumb to really live.
A tree is etched and sketched against the sky —
a pink wall — and a bird puffs its chest against a golden cloud.

Hands . . . hands clasped together;
some . . . hands of lovers, still enclasped, loathe
to let go . . . hands clasped in prayer and others scarred and worn, already working.

Now starts the day,
there in the bright and shining sky, and we stretch . . .
there starts the day . . . and through the grace of God . . .
start I.

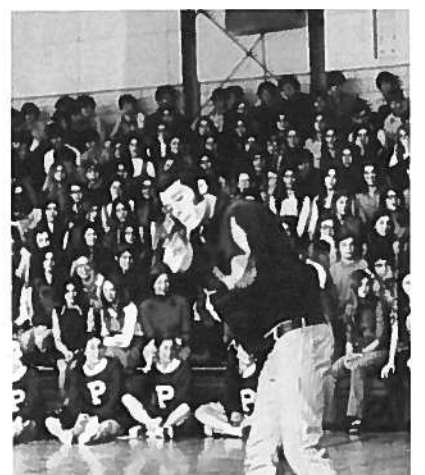

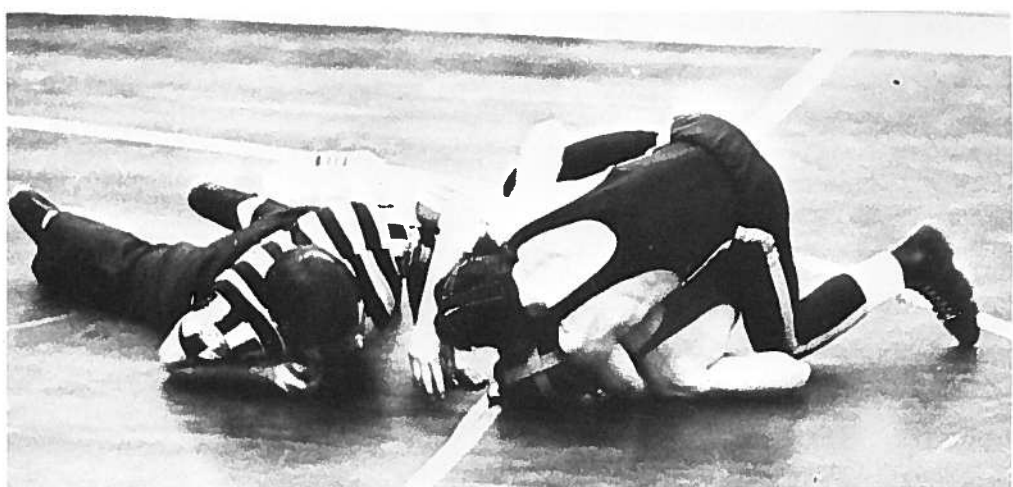

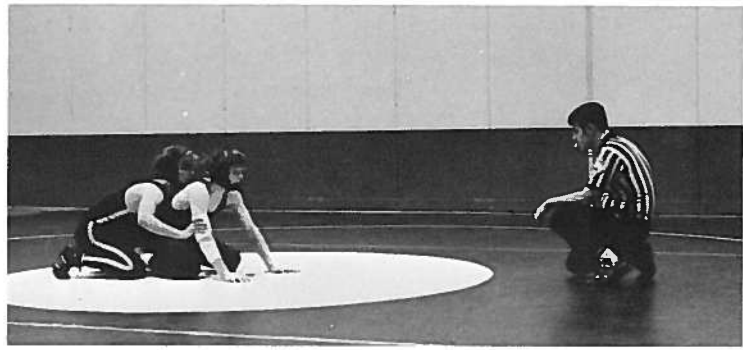

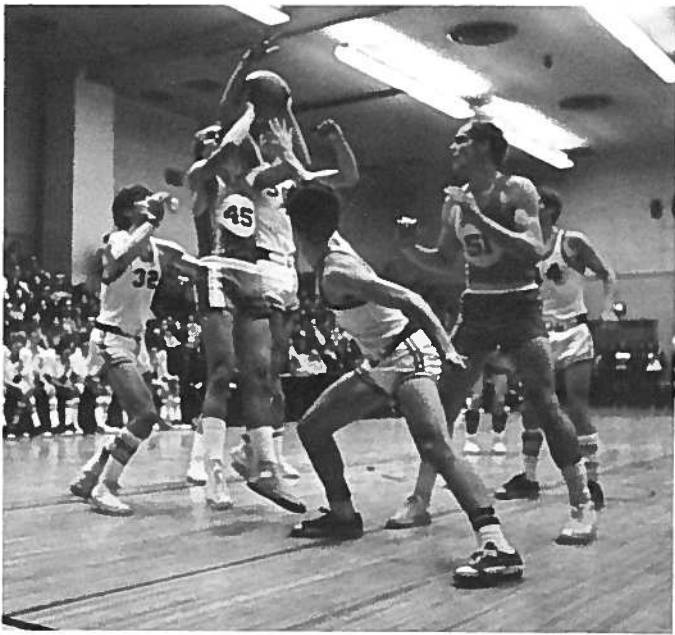

— Ken Novle

1972 DEDICATION

Some people are made to give of themselves without ever expecting thanks for their work and sacrifice. Because of this, it is easy for us to forget to show our gratitude and appreciation for what they've given us. Edward Mart, better known as just "Eddie", is one of those people. For ten years, Eddie has worked unselfishly for the Pittsford school system, and the Pittsford kids. He has picked up the messes we so often forget, going along with some of the craziest stunts we've pulled, and being a friend to hundreds of kids who have walked the halls of PCS. His constant smile and his "Hi, buddie" or "Hi, beautiful" shows genuine affection and a heart big enough to hold 1,400 kids.

Therefore, to show him that we care, and as a formal thank-you, we dedicate this yearbook to Eddie Mart, who has given us more than we can say.

Life goes from beginning to beginning.
Where we stand now,
those who strive to guide and enlighten us,
have stood before.
From their knowledge of what has happened,
they can show us what is to come.
From their own beginnings
they grew in experience and knowledge, retaining each small particle to give to others.
Their cherished hopes and dreams for wider horizons and a better life,
comes to those starting on the road
to their own beginnings through knowledge.

The Season opened on an optimistic note. Following a 41-6 victory over Gates-Chili, the Knights trounced a solid Webster force 44-0. The next clash against the Batavia Devils, however, marked the turning point in the grid season. Although the final team standing was 5-3, less than the undefeated season they strived for, the 1971 football squad deserves recognition as an outstanding team.

It Could Be Vogt's Year

"We have the makings of a fine team," Vogt admitted, "and with a bit of luck might go all the way this season. "No coach can make predictions at this stage of the game and a few key injuries could change the whole picture."

Unlucky

Pittsford tackle Gary Smith sits dejectedly on bench after being forced out of game against Gates-Chili with injury. Pittsford won football opener, 41-6.

With only a little more than a week of pre-season practice completed, the word is already out-Pittsford is loaded.

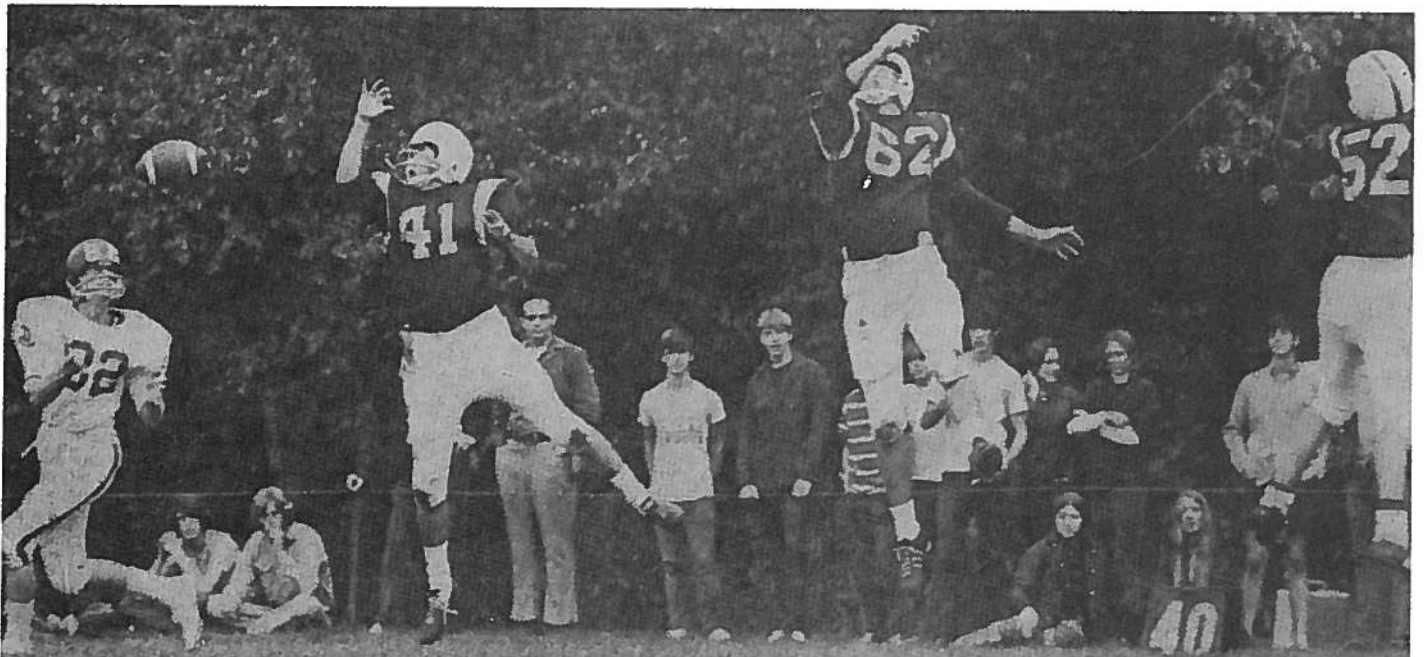

"Everyone knows we have a good club," said Vogt, noting that he has 29 returning lettermen. "Everyone will be gunning for us, too. We have to concentrate on each game."

Pittsford In Romp Over G-C

HALFWAY DOWN

Halfway down the stair
Is a stair
Where I sit.
There isn't any
Other stair
Quite like
It.
I'm not at the bottom
I'm not at the top,
So this is the stair
Where I always Stop.

Halfway up the stairs
Isn't up,
And it isn't down.
It isn't in the nursery,
It isn't in the town.
And all sorts of funny thoughts
Run round my head:
"It isn't really Anywhere!
It's somewhere else
Instead!"

Allright, so the poem is a little far-fetched . . .
But isn't it also true?
You who are underclassmen, and even you who have been, recognize those same feelings of "inbetween-ness".
Here you sit, well into the active beginnings of your life — yet not fully enveloped by the beginnings of your life away from home . . . out in that vast world from which there is no return . . .
Underclassmen . . . inbetweens . . .
